

Jeff Angelo

Jeff was born in St. Louis, attended a local broadcast school, then worked in small town radio in Missouri, followed by Iowa. He was elected to the Iowa Senate in 1996 and re-elected twice before choosing not to run again in 2008.

During his successful tenure in the Senate, he was elected by his colleagues to serve as President Pro-Tem. He chaired multiple committees including the powerful Appropriations Committee - which oversees the state budget. He was honored as Legislator of the Year by Iowa Bankers Association for his work improving the Iowa business climate.

Jeff lives in downtown Des Moines and maintains friendships with the most influential people in the state - allowing him to bring a unique perspective to the issues that matter to his statewide radio audience. Each day, listeners enjoy the energy and humor that has resulted in Jeff's success in broadcasting and politics.
