West Indies Island Hopping

Day 1 Depart Des Moines International Airport

Day 2 Depart the USA - San Juan, Puerto Rico

Your luxurious yacht cruise begins in San Juan, where you'll be transferred to your Emerald Cruises luxury yacht and embark on your discovery of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and St. Barths. Meals: D

Please book your flight to arrive into San Juan prior to 02:00 PM

Day 3 Culebra, Culebra Island, Puerto Rico

Culebra is widely known for its white-sand beaches and active reef and is one of the major islands in Puerto Rico's archipelago. This island offers plenty for nature lovers, giving you peace and tranquillity in a truly pristine destination. The whole island of Culebra is about 10 square miles and is divided into six barrios (Spanish for districts). There are more than 20 cays bustling with diverse marine life, making it an absolute paradise for underwater adventurers and casual beachgoers alike. Meals: B, L, D

Day 4 Esperanza Bay, Vieques Island, Puerto Rico

The quaint coastal town of Esperanza has a lovely waterfront with gorgeous beaches and a bustling strip of restaurants, bars, and guesthouses. One can walk along the boulevard and visit the various establishments for a glimpse into the local culture and activities on offer. Locals enjoy spending the afternoon at Sun Bay, the main urban beach located in the town's eastern outskirts. Meals: B, L, D

Day 5 Virgin Gorda, Gorda Sound, British Virgin Islands

Virgin Gorda is the third-largest and second-most populous of the British Virgin Islands. Columbus' lieutenants named the island Virgen Gorda – or 'the pregnant virgin', as upon approaching the island from the north or the east, the outline of a pregnant woman lying on her back is visible on the horizon. Somehow uncrowded, Gorda Sound itself has recently blossomed into a busy place surrounded with resorts and vacation villas. Virgin Gorda is a beautiful island; an ideal jumping off point for an in-depth discovery of the Virgin Islands. Meals: B, L, D.

Day 6 Gustavia, Saint Barthélemy

Named for Sweden's King Gustav III, Gustavia is the capital and main seaport of the island of Saint Barthélemy, also known as St. Barth. The island is said to have been discovered by Christopher Columbus back in 1493, who named it after his brother Bartolomeo. The indigenous residents of the island were called the Taino Indians. Despite claims of discovery and ownership by various European settlements, the Taino Indians did not welcome foreigners until the 18th century, when French mariners successfully settled on the island. The buccaneers, also known as pirates, actually helped boost the economy by trading gold for local products. The island traces influence from Great Britain as well as Sweden but was eventually returned to French rule in the late 19th century.

Day 7 Marigot Bay, Saint Martin

Marigot is a lovely town and the administrative centre of French Saint Martin. Both French and Caribbean culture can be seen throughout the island, creating that unique blend of French Caribbean. Some of the most spectacular sights include the castle of Fort Louis overlooking the town and reminding locals and visitors alike of its significant past. The open-air market is open every day for those seeking to discover the island's local vibe and flavours. Artisans here sell anything from fresh fruits and spices to artwork and even rum. The market is a delight to the senses, and while you are there, don't forget to try Mauby, a local beverage flavoured with bark which tastes like root beer. Meals: B, L, D

Day 8 White Bay with BBQ, Jost Van Dyke, British Virgin Islands

Jost Van Dyke is the smallest of all four main islands comprising the British Virgin Islands, approximately eight square kilometres. Known as 'The Last Virgin Island', White Bay Beach on Jost Van Dyke is made up of rather rocky scenery combined with colourful local culture. The bay is by far one of the best beaches to relax on, with plenty of room for visitors to lay down and enjoy splendid Caribbean views. Today, you will enjoy a barbeque on shore together with your fellow travellers. Meals: B, L, D

 BBQ Lunch on a fully equipped beach with live band

 Snorkeling to Sandy Spit

Day 9 San Juan, Puerto Rico

Your time aboard your Emerald Cruises luxury yacht comes to an end in San Juan. After bidding farewell to the crew and guests, you will be transferred to the airport for your return flight home. Meals: B

Travel Protection is Optional and Highly Recommended!

This nonrefundable fee will provide a refund to you during the instance that you have to cancel your trip. The cancellation has to be for a covered reason (see Plan for details on coverage) and we have to be notified at least one day prior to departure. If you must leave the tour early due to personal illness or the illness or death of an immediate family member, TPP will provide a refund for any unused services after the departure of the tour. Other benefits include medical expenses for illness and injury, emergency transportation, 24 hour hot line and lost or stolen baggage assistance. Return air transportation is included ONLY if your air tickets are purchased through Mayflower Cruises & Tours. Please review the Plan for details on coverage.

Should you choose not to purchase our TPP, the following per person cancellation charges will be assessed for all tours and optional excursion costs:

- 121 days or more prior to departure: Deposit Amount
- 120 days until day of departure: 100% of total tour
- No refund on unused portions of the tour

Exclusions for the Cancellation Fee Waiver: Mayflower Cruises & Tours reserves the right to alter its Refund and Cancellation Policy when a substantial amount of cancellation or postponement of travel is attributable to: conditions resulting from an act of God, natural or man-made disaster, fire, government action, civil disorder, war, hostilities between nations, or unavailability of transportation through no fault of Mayflower Cruises & Tours.

Passport & Visas – Each U.S. citizen must have a valid passport. Expiry date of passports should be at least 6 months after the return date of tour. If you don't have a passport, call our office and we'll tell you how to apply for one. Some countries require visas for entry by U.S. citizens. We will send visa applications and instructions if a visa is required for your tour. Holders of non-U.S. passports should contact their nearest consulate and inquire about the necessary passport or visa documentation required for entry into the countries visited. NOTE: Due to airline security measures, your passport name must match your airline ticket name and your tour reservation name or you may be denied aircraft boarding.
